- 13) Not applicable.

DEFENDANT: DANIEL E. PICKENS
CASE NUMBER: 13-40053-JPG

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Due to the defendant's substance abuse history and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct, protect the public from further crimes, and to provide corrective treatment (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B), (C), and (D)), the defendant shall participate, as directed and approved by the probation officer, in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis and/or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility, the number of drug tests shall not exceed 52 tests in a one-year period. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages and any other substances for the purpose of intoxication. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered, based on a Court approved sliding fee scale as directed by the probation officer. The defendant's financial obligation shall never exceed the total cost of services rendered.

Due to concerns related to the defendant's mental health and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct, protect the public from further crimes, and to provide corrective treatment (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B), (C), and (D)), the defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, which may include participation in treatment for anger management, domestic violence, cognitive skills, or other forms of therapy or counseling that may be recommended, as directed by the probation officer. This may include a mental health assessment and/or psychiatric evaluation. This may require participation in a medication regimen prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered, based on a Court approved sliding fee scale as directed by the probation officer. The defendant's financial obligation shall never exceed the total cost of services rendered.

As the defendant is not educationally or vocationally prepared to enter the workforce and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct, protect the public from further crimes, and to provide corrective treatment (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B), (C), and (D)), the defendant shall participate in any program deemed appropriate to improve job readiness skills, which may include participation in a GED program or Workforce Development Program, as directed by the probation officer.

While any financial penalties are outstanding (corrective treatment/satisfaction of sentence-18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(D)), the defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

While any financial penalties are outstanding (corrective treatment/satisfaction of sentence-18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(D)), the defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

ADDITIONAL SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Based upon the nature and circumstances of the offense and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct and protect the public from further crimes (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B) and (C)), the defendant shall submit their person, residence, real property, place of business, vehicle, and any other property under the defendant's control to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
